If recourse shall be had to the Deposit during the Term the Tenant shall forthwith on demand by way of additional rent pay to the Landlord such amount as shall be required to restore the amount of the Deposit to the sum hereinbefore specified.

As soon as practicable after the determination of the tenancy (howsoever the same may be determined) the Landlord shall retain such part of the Deposit as it shall be deemed necessary to enable the Landlord as at the date of such determination to make good any breach or non-compliance by the Tenant with its obligations hereunder and shall account to the Tenant for any balance of such sum. If the Deposit shall be insufficient for the purpose aforesaid the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord forthwith on demand such further sum as shall be required for such purposes.

- 4) IT is expressly agreed that the tenant may give one calendar months' notice, in writing, to the Landlord at any time with respect to the tenants' intention to vacate the Property and so terminate this tenancy. The tenancy will then be terminated at the end of such notice period and the tenant will vacate the Property returning all keys to the Landlord.
- 5) PROVIDED that if the rent or any part thereof shall be in arrear for at least twenty-one days after the same shall have become due (whether legally demanded or not) or if the Tenant shall fail to observe or perform all or any of the agreements on the part of the Tenant herein contained the Landlord may re-enter upon the whole or any part of the Property in the name of the whole and thereupon the tenancy shall absolutely determine but without prejudice to any claims (whether for any arrears of rent or otherwise) which may be due from or enforceable against the Tenant in respect of the Property.
- 6) ON the first anniversary of the date hereof the Rent shall be adjusted in the same proportion as the increase in the Retail Price Index or in the Average Earnings Index whichever increase is the greater ("the Relevant Index").

The increase in the Relevant Index shall be calculated by reference to the figure for the Relevant Index last published before the date hereof (it being agreed that such figure for the Retail Price Index is _____ and for the Average Earnings Index is _____ ) and to the figure for the Relevant Index last published before the first anniversary of the date hereof.

"The Retail Price Index" means the monthly index of retail prices maintained by the Department of Employment (or any government department upon which duties in connection with such index have devolved).

"The Average Earnings Index" means the monthly index of seasonally adjusted average earnings of all employees maintained by the Department of Employment (or any government department upon which duties in connection with such index have devolved).

In the event that both of those indexes decrease over the first year or any subsequent year of the period of the tenancy then the rent will not be decreased in proportion to the decrease in either index.

If the reference base used to compile the Relevant Index shall change after today's date the figure taken to be shown in the index after the change shall be the figure which would have been shown in the index if the reference base current at today's date had been retained.

On the second and subsequent anniversaries (if applicable) of the commencement of this tenancy, the monthly rent shall again be increased. Such an increase shall be similarly determined based on the Relevant Index figure last published, prior to the second or subsequent anniversary dates as appropriate, divided by the Relevant Index figure used for the basis of the prior year's rent increase under this clause. The rent shall increase by 20% or the proportional change in the Relevant Index whichever is the greater.

If it becomes impossible by reason of any change after today's date in the methods used to compile the Relevant Index or for any other reason whatever to calculate the rent by reference to the Relevant Index or if any dispute or question whatever shall arise between the parties with respect to the amount of the rent or the construction or effect of this clause, the determination of the rent or other matter in difference shall be determined by an Arbitrator to be appointed either by the agreement between the parties or in the absence of agreement by the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (or his duly appointed deputy or any person authorised by him to make appointments on his behalf) on the application by the parties which Arbitrator shall act as an expert and will have full power to determine as he shall deem apposite what would have been the increase in the Relevant Index had it continued on the basis and in view of the information assumed to be available for the calculation of the rent or (if that determination shall also be impossible) shall determine the rent on such date or dates having regard to the purposes and intention of the provision of this agreement.

- 7) THE Landlord hereby agrees to keep the Building (but excluding any tenant's fixtures) insured against fire aircraft storm explosion and bursting and overflowing of water pipes and apparatus and such other perils as the Landlord may from time to time reasonably insure against such insurance to be effected with a substantial and reputable insurance office for the full reinstatement value (including the cost of demolition and all necessary professional fees in connection with reinstatement).
- 8) THE Landlord agrees with the Tenant that the Tenant paying the rent and performing and observing all the agreements herein contained may quietly possess and enjoy the Property during the tenancy without any lawful interruption from or by the Landlord or any person claiming through or under or in trust for such party.
- 9) THE Tenant hereby agrees that the Landlord shall not be liable for:
  - a) any loss damage injury or liability sustained by the Tenant his family servants visitors or licensees by reason of any defect or want of repair in the Property whether the same be patent or latent nor in respect of any defect in any future pipe wire staircase or thing in or upon the Property or any part thereof
  - b) any interruption of any of services hereinbefore mentioned by reason of the maintenance repair renewal or rebuilding of any installations or apparatus or damage thereto or destruction thereof by fire water act of God or other cause beyond the control of the Landlord or by reason of mechanical or other breakdown or frost or other inclement conditions or unavoidable shortage of fuel materials water or labour or

c) any act omission or negligence of any agent or servant of the Landlord in or about the performance or purported performance of any duty relating to the provision of the said services or any of them.

10) THIS AGREEMENT shall take effect subject to the provisions of section 11 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985, if applicable to the tenancy hereby created.
